

Dah Sing Financial Holdings Limited

Nomination and Remuneration Committee - Terms of Reference

1. Constitution

- 1.1 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee (the "Committee or NRC") is established by the Board of Directors of Dah Sing Financial Holdings Limited (the "Company") as a Committee of the Board. The Committee is responsible to oversee remuneration matters of the Company and its subsidiaries (the "Group"), and also to nominate or review and endorse the nomination for appointment as Non-Executive Directors (including Independent Non-Executive Directors), Executive Directors and Alternate Directors and to review and endorse the nomination for appointment as Senior Management to the Board of the Company.

2. Objectives

- 2.1 The Committee shall review the structure, size, composition and diversity of the Board of the Company and its committees at least annually and make recommendations on any proposed changes to the Board to complement the corporate strategy of the Group. The Committee shall also regularly review the efficiency and effectiveness of the functioning of the Board of the Company and its committees, particularly in respect of the composition of Board and committee members.
- 2.2 The Committee shall nominate or review and endorse the nomination for appointment as Non-Executive Directors (including Independent Non-Executive Directors), Executive Directors and Alternate Directors and shall review and endorse the nomination for appointment as Senior Management to the Board of the Company to ensure that the individuals appointed to the Board or key management positions are competent, and can contribute to the Company and discharge their responsibilities in the interests of shareholders and depositors, and for the sound development of the Group. The appointment and re-appointment of the Directors and Senior Management of the Boards of the Company's subsidiaries are not within the duties of the Committee.
- 2.3 The Committee is delegated with the authority of the Board of the Company to approve the succession planning policy for Board members and Senior Management. The Committee shall make recommendations to the Board of the Company on succession planning for Directors and Senior Management, in particular the Chairman and the Chief Executive.
- 2.4 The Committee shall assist the Board of the Company in discharging their responsibility for the design and operation of the Company's and its subsidiaries' remuneration systems. The Committee shall review and make recommendations in respect of the Group's remuneration policy and practices to the Board and ensure that the policy is in line with the Group's business needs, culture, strategy, objectives, risk appetite and control environment, market situations and also consistent with the principles set out in the relevant legal and regulatory requirements applicable to employees' remuneration. The Committee may delegate the related responsibilities and authorities to the Company's Management as appropriate.

- 2.5 The Committee is delegated with the responsibility of the Board of the Company to determine the specific remuneration packages of the Company's Senior Management so as to:
- (a) Ensure that Senior Management members are fairly rewarded for their individual contributions to the overall performance of the Company and their remuneration packages are consistent with the Group's remuneration policy;
 - (b) Provide the oversight mechanism on the determination of the remuneration of Senior Management, which is set by a committee taking into consideration the recommendations of Management and all relevant factors relating to the Group's performance including risk taking and measurement, and performance measurement of individual Senior Management members, and in making its determination, the Committee has no personal interest in the outcome of its decision; and
 - (c) Provide a sound basis of accountability and independence to be demonstrated to shareholders and regulators, as the Committee is not controlled by the Company's Management.
- 2.6 The Committee shall ensure that at least on an annual basis, a review of the Group's remuneration system and its operation is conducted independently of Management.
- 2.7 The Committee shall advise and assist the Board of the Company in discharging its culture reform and related responsibilities.
- 2.8 For the purposes of this document:
- (a) Senior Management of the Company are Executive Directors of the Company, and those senior executives who, not being Executive Directors of the Company, have group management roles and responsibilities or are designated as members of senior management by either the Chairman or Chief Executive of the Company;

- (v) the Committee shall consider such other topics as it is directed by the Board.

12. Nomination Determination

- 12.1 A proposal for the appointment of any new Director or Senior Management of the Company will be reviewed and endorsed by the Committee. As a general rule, candidates to be selected and recommended are experienced and qualified individuals with appropriate credential, functional expertise and track record, and are individuals who are generally considered of high calibre and capability that could make contribution to the Group, and can properly discharge their responsibilities.
- 12.2 All candidates must be able to meet the standards as set forth in Rules 3.08 and 3.09 of the Listing Rules (regarding authorized representative and directors) providing for the general principles and qualifications as to the roles and responsibilities, and the key qualities of directors of companies listed on the main board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. In addition, proposed directors must be assessed by the relevant regulatory authorities as appropriate, and are able to meet the standards of these authorities applicable to directors of an authorised or licensed institution.
- 12.3 A candidate who is to be appointed as an Independent Non-Executive Director should also meet the independence criteria set out in Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules.

13. Remuneration Determination

- 13.1 The remuneration packages of the Chairman, Vice Chairman, Chief Executive, Directors and Senior Management shall be determined and reviewed annually (unless exceptional circumstances apply) in the following manner:
- (a) Remuneration packages of the Chairman, Vice Chairman, Chief Executive and individual Executive Directors shall be determined by the Committee taking into consideration the recommendations of Management and factors such as the Group's remuneration policy, culture, strategy, objectives, risk appetite, involvement in ESG and climate-related risk management, performance and control environment, relevant legal and regulatory requirements, pay levels and practices of comparable companies and individual's contribution. The above position holders have no involvement in making decision in respect of their own remuneration packages. The Chairman of the Company may make recommendations for the remuneration packages of other Executive Directors but will not be involved in the decision making for their remuneration packages.
 - (b) Remuneration packages of Senior Management shall be subject to the approval of the Committee following a recommendation to the Committee by the Chairman of the Company. The above position holders have no involvement in making decision in respect of their own remuneration packages.
 - (c) The remuneration packages of Non-Executive Directors shall be approved by the Committee, having regard to the recommendation from the Chairman of the Company.
- 13.2 Approval for deferred remuneration is also subject to the respective scheme rules, which are separately set out in other documents forming part of the overall framework of the Group's remuneration system. The Committee and the Board of the Company are required to make reference to such scheme rules, and make recommendations or decisions accordingly. Any major amendments relating to share option scheme or share award scheme, subject to scheme rules and regulatory requirements, could require the approval of shareholders of the Company in general meeting.

14. Reporting Procedures

14.1 The Committee shall report regularly to the Board on its findings, decisions and recommendations, such as by circulation of meeting minutes to the full board of the Company.
