Dah Sing Bank Launches "FX Club Membership Programme"

Up to 40 Pips Extra Discount for VIP Banking Customers

(Hong Kong, 6 May 2021) Dah Sing Bank, Limited ("the Bank") today announces its "FX Club Membership Programme" which aims to fulfill its customers' foreign currency needs which may range from investing, travelling, or studying abroad. The Bank constantly strives to enhance its services with innovative features. The FX Club Membership Programme allows its VIP Banking customers to enjoy extra rate privileges on foreign exchange transactions performed through a variety of channels. The transaction amount will be automatically aggregated for the calculation of membership thresholds, so the more customers trade, the more they can save.

From now until 30 June 2021 ("Promotion Period"), once their cumulative value of foreign exchange transactions reach the designated thresholds, VIP Banking customers can upgrade to Gold and Platinum members. They can enjoy unlimited FX Club Rewards of up to 40 pips discount on top of their VIP Banking preferential exchange rates for the spot foreign exchange transactions conducted between the next business day and the end of the Promotion Period. VIP Banking customers can also access the details and status of the membership programme through their Mobile Banking anytime anywhere.
